FOURTH SISTER ROSSI MUSIC SCHOLARSHIP FUND CONCERT

APRIL 21

IMMEDIATE RELEASE - April 1, 1974

San Diego, California

The University of San Diego's Camino Theatre will be the setting for a concert on Sunday, April 21 at 4 p.m.

For the fourth year, the USD music department will honor Sister Aimee Rossi for whom the concert and Music Scholarship Fund are named.

Sister Rossi, dean emeritus of the University, is a member of the Religious of the Sacred Heart. Originally from San Francisco, Sr. Rossi has been in San Diego since 1952. For fifteen years she served as academic dean of the San Diego College for Women, now a part of the University of San Diego. Her life-long love of music is enriched by the knowledge that USD students are assisted by the proceeds from the concert. Over $4,000 has been raised since 1971.

The University Symphony Orchestra will be conducted by Mr. Joel Jacklich, a graduate of USIU who plays viola in the USD Orchestra. The 60 piece orchestra which is composed of students and community musicians is directed by Dr. Henry Kolar, Assistant Director of Music. However, Dr. Kolar is incapacitated by a broken arm. Piano soloist will be Ilana Mysior, Assistant Professor of Music.
